Canaan Melodies #18

Words by Frances Ridley Havergal; Wm. J Kirkpatrick (chorus)

Music by Wm J. Kirkpatrick

C G C
1 Take my life and let it be; consecrated, Lord, to Thee
C F G C
Take my moments and my days; let them flow in endless praise
C G C
2 Take my hands and let them move; at the impulse of Thy love
C F G C
Take my feet and let them be; swift and beautiful for Thee

F C F C G
Wash me in the Saviour's precious blood, cleanse me in its purifying flood
C F C G C
Lord I give to Thee my life and all to be Thine, henceforth, eternally

C G C
3 Take my voice and let me sing; always, only, for my King
C F G C
Take my lips and let them be; filled with messages from Thee
C G C
4 Take my silver and my gold; not a mite would I withhold
C F G C
Take my intellect and use; every power as Thou shalt choose

C G C
5 Take my will and make it Thine; it shall be no longer mine
C F G C
Take my heart it is Thine own; it shall be Thy royal throne
C G C
6 Take my love my Lord I pour; at Thy feet its treasure store
C F G C
Take myself, and I will be ever, only, all for Thee
